RE: claim/order number B03W1020 - G00WI229

Dear Sir, Madam

Taking reference to aforesaid claim/orders, I seem to be urged contacting you as advised in aforesaid order, by Judge Gillman, sitting at Willesden County Court with him on 25 April 2016.

Reason; the claimants appears unsatisfied and proceed further in my absence, the arbitrating Judge Wright, disregarding my warning addressing his Court, printed 23 November 2019.

Reasons and justification of the defendant's disagreement to the creditor's claim and refusal to accept the court ruling made 11 March 2020, which contradicts the same Court's Ruling ordering on 25 April 2016:

I wish to stay alive just like you do!!!!!!!!!!

That's why think about your way of consuming energy. It is not unlimited! Even renewable energies are limited but they are an alternative. If you use this alternative while saving energy you will take me off this list as well as yourself. Think about it in time!

1. Relevant arbitrating Court, now believed having lost jurisdiction over the case due to foreign payment involvement since last order made, respectfully served by the debtor and investor to the UK – had been warned on 23 November 2019, very detailed the last time, before departing to South Africa on the 2nd January 2020, that I the defendant in this matter will not be available till my return/inbound to London UK being completed.
2. Court proceeding has been instigated without my awareness, despite the creditor also knew about my where about during scheduled hearing 9 March 2020. No SMS warning, no email, no phone-voice message had been noticed despite the landline clearly advising on a memo-mode to contact me by e-mail due to off shore residing.
3. There had been a Court order in place B03W1020, already, Judge Gillman having ruled and ordered over both accounts, the original mortgage account and the mortgage reserve account, having been presented to him at relevant times, ordering that possession given to the claimant not to be enforced so long the defendant pays the claimant the unpaid instalments under the “mortgage of £4,033.19” by the payments set out below in addition to the current instalments under the “mortgage” - further, he ordered - “money claim adjourned generally” Both the claimant and the defendant being myself accepted the ruling - quietly - no appeal had been made to my awareness within reasonable times. I served this order respectfully leaving an overpayment on the account of £ 2,604.68 on 14 March 2020 , meaning 3 days after the new ruling dated 11 March 2020, as the Claimant stated – note attached statement from Barclays PLC

- I consequently believe having respected the Court order made 25 April 2016 faithfully, now being very bewildered at my return to the UK about current status of the matters before me.
- Please resume both accounts the mortgage and the mortgage-reserve/current-account had been forwarded for arbitration by the very same claimant Barclays PLC and their Solicitors before aforesaid ruling and order had been made on 25 April 2016, a significant point to bare in mind! Both accounts had been said to have received the variable interest rate idling around 5% - against an ultra low interest rate set by the Bank of England at below 1% for most of the mortgage account life time and the entire mortgage-reserve account life time - at “first default” without specification when that should have happened.
- The unfair overcharge of very high interest charges and penalties for a default I have not even coursed has been disputed all the time over many reminders, addressed to the Creditor, who continuously disregarded such sensible calls.
- The claimant/ creditor - Barclays PLC - has received – according to my records - not less than £ 161,612.05 excluding penalties (accounting-deadline June 2020) since commencement date of this mortgage life-time spring 2002 against a borrow amount of £102,500.00 on the mortgage account and later - in 2008 - £37,640.00 on the mortgage reserve-account, which - last mentioned - in mutual consent with the creditor had been spent in South Africa at 15A Blairgowrie Road, 3629 Westville to South Africa. Yet the Claimant according to her Solicitors claims not less than £ 50,219.10 according what I condense from their papers being related to the “Mortgage Current Account” and £ 19,656.09 - to the Barclays PLC statement, 17 March 2020 - on the mortgage, last mentioned faithfully served by myself, according to Court order made 25 April 2016.
- Setting aforementioned in a nutshell the Claimant believes his claim of a total of not less than £161,612.05 received at hearing date, already, plus his claim of £50,219.10 plus £19,656.09 making £231,487.24 being fair and justifies to claim a repossession order on 9th March 2020. Bare in mind the original amount borrowed including the questionable mortgage reserves being spent in South Africa with its own mysterious character, had been £ 140,140.00 against the demand from the Creditor who appears to be a regulated prime lender, claiming via their Solicitors 9th March 2020 of what I comprehend in full and total to serve this agreement to their satisfaction not less than £231,487.24. Isn't that more than 60% added on top of the borrowed amount, being paid back already? I am stunned Judge Wright ordering repossession against his sensible member of staff at this Court, in my absence!

5. Now I just consider covid-19 being a direct result of neglected climate-change to be addressed adequately, having proposed to the claimant Barclays PLC continuously, after the Court appearances in 2015 and 2016, having resulted in the Court order made 25 April 2016, to change mortgage-condition and to release equity against this investment for renewable energy generation, all disregarded or rejected by the Claimant and prime lender I commence wondering who should be responsible for all this mess and inconvenience I personally as well as every part of the society experienced, recently, not just in the UK but world-wide, some having paid with their life, already, more certainly to follow this road! Who in goodness is responsible for that? Am I really in default assessing matters before me correctly?
6. All what is left to say is that since court order 2016 the account being served from foreign, cleared funds to the UK and this land & property unequivocally enjoys international investment protection the Defendant and Investor to the UK, holding dual citizenship, being British/German.

Many thanks for your attention; further info and details on www.greenpower1wo "financial UK-effect"

Sincerely Yours
